Days of Fatimiyah

بِسْمِ اللّٰهِ الرَّحْمٰنِ الرَّحِیْمِ

"Fatimah is part of me, and whoever pleases her, pleases me."

-Prophet Muhammad (s)

In the Islamic year, during the month of Jamadi al Awwal and Jamadi al Thani, there are some days in which we mourn the tragedy which took place on our spiritual mother "Sayyida Fatimah (sa)". These days are called, "The days of Fatimiyah", which refers to her name.

The days of Fatimiyah occur in two Islamic months, because we have two different dates for her death anniversary. According to one narration, she passed away 75 days after the death of our Holy Prophet(s), whereas in another narration it happened after 95 days. Therefore, to respect and honor her, we remember Sayyida Fatimah (sa) on both of these dates.

In these days of Fatimiyah, we learn about the personality of Sayyida Fatimah(sa) by listening to majlis, reading books about her life, and completing some activities to gain more knowledge about her. This workbook is designed to improve our understanding about Sayyida Fatimah(sa).

Who is Sayyida Fatimah (sa)?

Sayyida Fatimah (sa) was the beloved daughter of our Holy Prophet Muhammad (s) and Sayyida Khadija(sa). She was born in the holy city of Makkah, on the 20th of Jamadi al Thani in the year 605 AD. Sayyida Fatimah (sa) was an obedient servant of Allah (swt), therefore she made sure to follow all the teachings of Islam from a very young age.

She also helped her father, Prophet Muhammad (s) in spreading the message of Allah (swt). When she got a little older, our Holy Prophet(s) married her to Imam Ali (as).

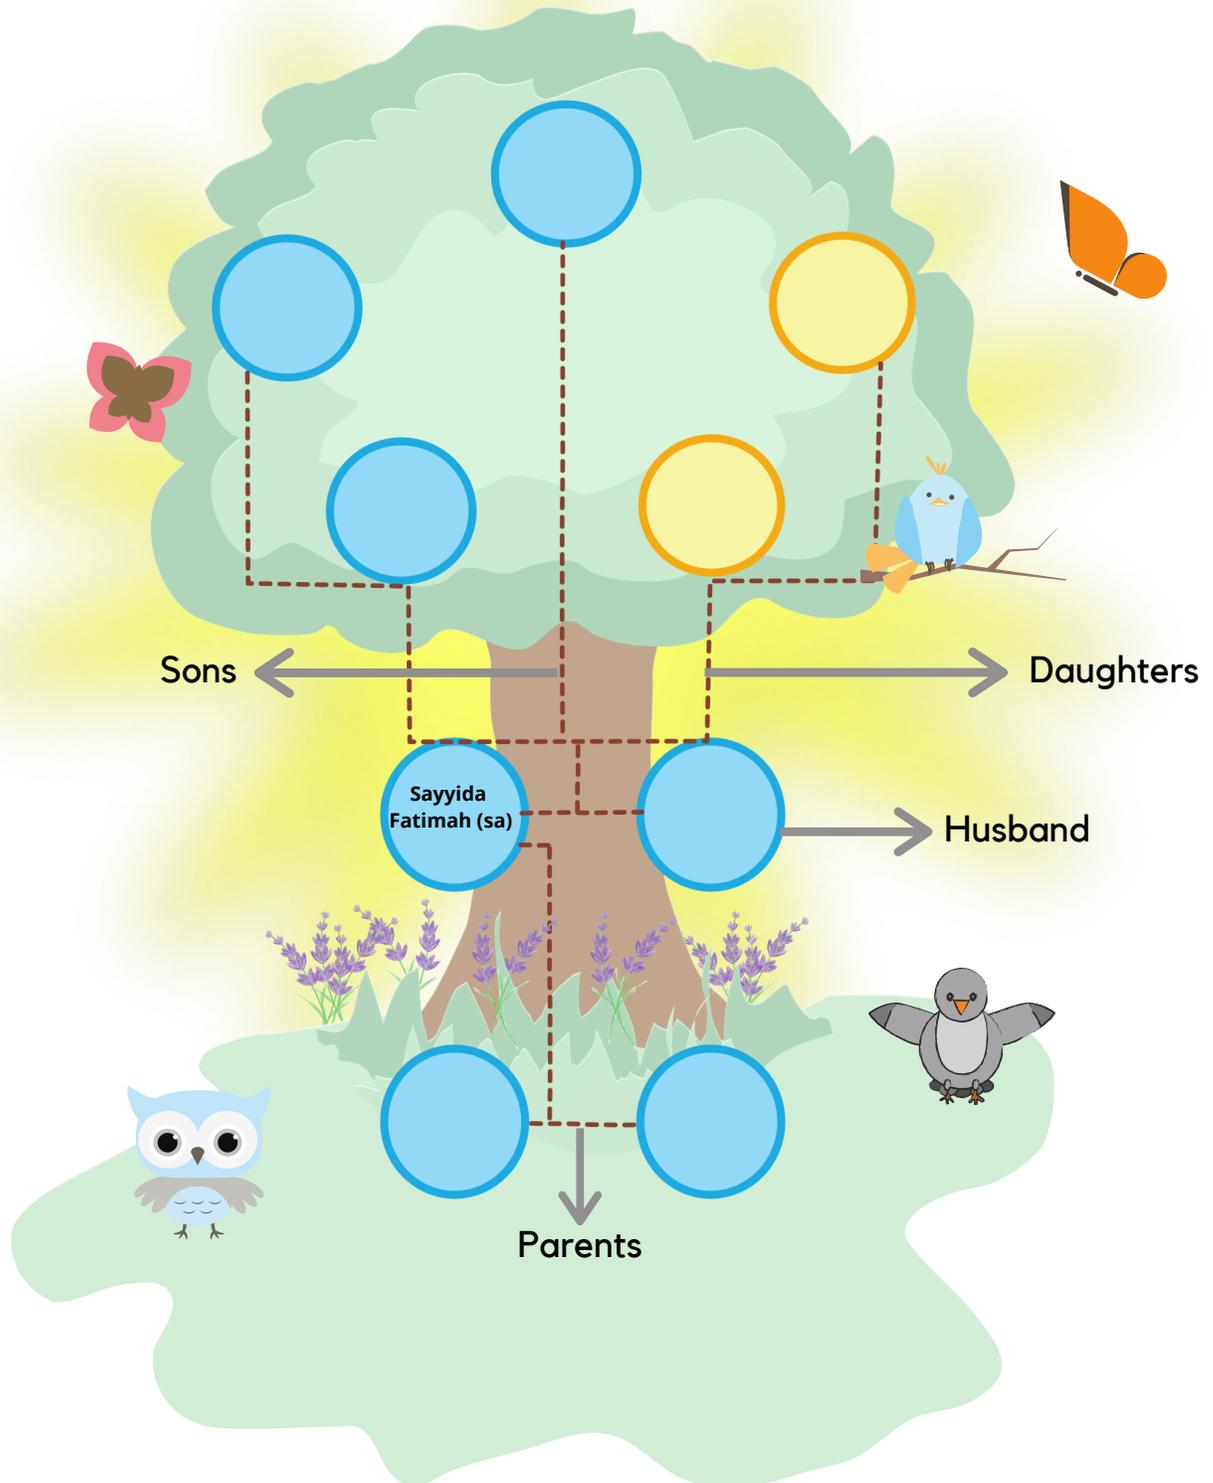

Sayyida Fatimah (sa) and Imam Ali (as) had 5 kids together. There were 3 boys and 2 girls in their family. They named their boys Hasan, Husayn and Mohsin. Whereas the girls were named Zainab and Umme Kulthum.

Their sons, Hasan and Husayn are our 2nd and 3rd Imams.

Unfortunately, their baby Mohsin passed away in a tragedy, which also took the life of his mother Sayyida Fatimah (sa) after a few days. Imam Ali(as) buried Sayyida Fatimah (sa) in Medina.

Food from Heaven

"And they feed, for the love of Allah, the poor, the orphan, and the captive."
(Noble Qur'an, 76:8)

Throughout her life, Sayyida Fatimah (sa) remained very kind to poor people and orphans.

Sayyida Fatimah, and her family members, always made sure to help everyone and especially the needy around her. Fatimah (sa) performed these actions to gain Allah's love towards her.

Once, she kept 3 fasts with her family to fulfill a vow. During these 3 nights at the time of iftar, everyone offered their food to a poor person, an orphan, and a prisoner, who came to their door. Allah (swt) loved their actions so much that on the 3rd night, HE sent food for them from the Heavens and sent a whole chapter "Surah Al-Insaan (The Man)" in their praise. The verse above talks about their love for the poor and orphans.

A Precious Gift

One day Sayyida Fatimah (sa) came to her father, the Holy Prophet Muhammad (s), and asked him if he could provide her a maid, who could help her in the house chores. The Holy Prophet (s) asked her if she would be willing to learn something which could help her in this world and the hereafter.

Sayyida Fatimah (sa) became so excited to receive such a gift from her beloved father. The Prophet (s) then taught her about the 3 precious praises for Allah(swt) to be read daily, but there was a secret number to which she had to read each praise.

Tasbeeh

A tasbeeh (rosary) is like a counter to help in keeping the count for anything. When Sayyida Fatimah (sa) figured out that those praises were supposed to be read in specific numbers, she made a tasbeeh. Her first tasbeeh was made from blue wool, and later she used the clay from the grave of Prophet Muhammad's (s) uncle.

Along with teaching a glorious gift to Sayyida Fatimah (sa), the Holy Prophet (s) also gave her a very special maid name "Lady Fizza".

Lady Fizza had come from Abyssinia to Arabia as a slave where she was freed by the Holy Prophet (S). She was a very pious woman and helped the Prophet (s) and his wife before serving Sayyida Fatimah (sa).

Lady Fizza loved the Ahlul Kisa, family of Prophet Muhammad(s), therefore she learned a lot from them. Sayyida Fatimah (sa) was very kind towards Lady Fizza. If one day Lady Fizza would do the house work, the next day Sayyida Fatimah (sa) would let her rest.

Sayyida Fatimah (sa) also taught and helped her memorize the Holy Quran therefore Lady Fizza later in her life, only spoke from the verses of Holy Quran.

A Tragedy

Allah ordered the Holy Prophet Muhammad (s) to appoint Imam Ali(as) as the leader for the rest of the ummah. He obeyed Allah's order and told everyone who will be the leader for them afterwards. But sadly not all the muslims were happy with this announcement.

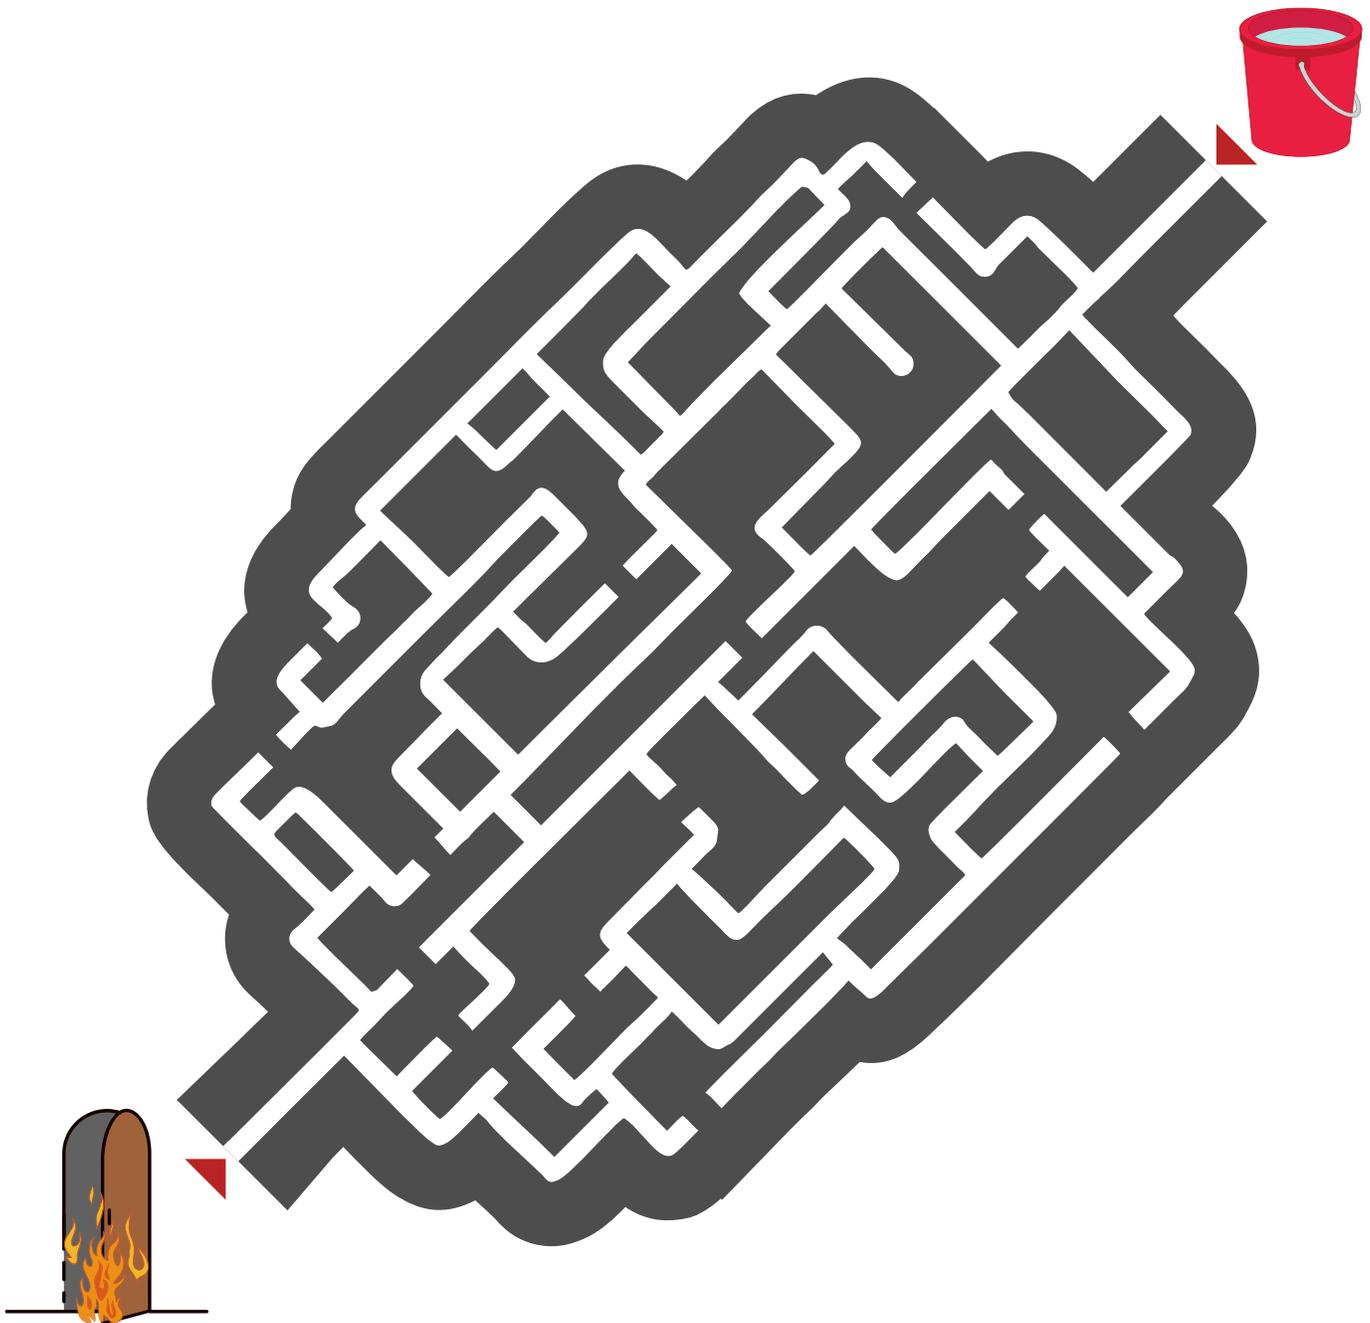

Shortly after that, our Prophet (s) was poisoned and then Sayyida Fatimah(sa) became the biggest supporter of Imam Ali's rights.

However some Muslims chose another leader because they thought Imam Ali(as) was too young and jolly and therefore he can't lead them.*

These Muslims wanted Sayyida Fatima(sa) to support them and not Imam Ali(as) so they attacked her house. They dragged Imam Ali(as) out and brought him to the court. Unfortunately, they hurt Sayyida Fatimah(sa) in this attack and she lost her baby Mohsin(as). After a few days she passed away due to those injuries.
